

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

SIERRA DUST CONTROL, L.L.C.,
Plaintiff,

v.

NEXT LEVEL ENERGY SERVICES, L.L.C., Defendant.

Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-00495

Jury Trial Demanded

COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

THE PARTIES

1. Sierra Dust Control is a Texas limited liability company having its principal place of business at 1155 E. Johnson St., Tatum, Texas 75691.
2. On information and belief, Next Level is also a Texas limited liability company, having its principal place of business at 998 County Road 184, Carthage, Texas 75633.
3. This action arises under the United States Patent Laws, 35 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).
4. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Next Level because it has committed acts of infringement in this Judicial District in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271, has offices in Texas, transacts business in this Judicial District, has purposefully availed itself of the privileges and benefits of the laws of Texas, solicits customers in the State of Texas, and has customers who are residents of the State of Texas and this Judicial District and who use infringing equipment and services provided by Next Level.
5. Venue is proper in this Judicial District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)-(c) and 1400(b).

THE PATENT-IN-SUIT

6. Sierra Dust Control is engaged, among other things, in providing services to the oil services industry and in particular to companies engaged in hydraulic fracturing to control and removing silica dust during the handling of frac sand.

7. Sierra Dust Control is engaged in the manufacture of equipment for controlling silica dust in such applications and providing dust-control services to companies engaged in hydraulic fracturing.

8. Sierra Dust Control is the owner of all right, title, and interest in U.S. Patent No. 8,881,749 (“the ‘749 patent”) for “Systems and Methods for Controlling Silica Dust During Hydraulic Fracturing Operations” issued November 11, 2014. A copy of the ‘749 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION INFRINGEMENT OF THE ‘749 PATENT

9. On information and belief, Next Level has infringed and continues to infringe, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, at least claims 1 and 10 of the ‘749 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by making, using, offering for sale, and operating dust-control systems that infringe the ‘749 patent.

10. On information and belief, Next Level has infringed and continues to infringe at least claims 1 and 10 of the ‘749 patent by inducing customers and potential customers to use products or processes within the United States that practice the inventions of the ‘749 patent with knowledge of the ‘749 patent and awareness that such customers directly infringe.

11. On information and belief, Next Level’s infringement has been deliberate and willful.

12. Sierra Dust Control has been damaged by Next Level's infringement of the '749 patent, has been irreparable harmed by that infringement, and will suffer additional damages and irreparable harm unless this Court enjoins Next Level from further infringement.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

13. Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Sierra Dust Control demands a jury trial.

RELIEF REQUESTED

14. Sierra Dust Control seeks judgment that:

- a. Next Level has infringed and is infringing the '749 patent;
- b. Next Level, its officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, successors and assigns and all other persons in active concert or participation with them be enjoined from infringing, contributing to infringement and inducing infringement of the '749 patent;
- c. Sierra Dust Control be awarded compensatory damages, together with interest and costs under 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- d. The Court increase the award of damages up to three times the amount found or assessed under 35 U.S.C. § 284 for willful infringement;
- e. The Court declare this case to be exceptional and award increased damages; and
- f. Grant Sierra Dust Control such other and further relief in law or equity as the Court may deem just and proper.
